Welcome to Southern Colorado Kennel Club's 67th annual dog show event! We feel privileged to be amongst the company of dog show friends from around the country and around the world.

If 2023 marks your first year at our show, we want to extend a special heartfelt appreciation to you for choosing to spend your weekend with us here in Colorado and hope this will be just one of many visits to come.

I am proud to say that at the Southern Colorado Kennel Club our motto is, "we have a good thing go 'n on"! Good, because our club is made up of a group of very special and extraordinary people; diverse in so many ways, but with one common thread ... the passion we each share for our dogs and for our community. The people of SCKC are an unequalled group of hardworking, loyal, and dedicated volunteers that advocate for dogs and work hard to provide the city of Pueblo as well as the surrounding communities with an affordable place to train, to learn, and to gather. Each year, our dog show is the culmination of a full year of thousands of volunteer hours spent working and planning to bring you three great days of fun and we hope you can take advantage of as much as possible while you are here.

On behalf of all the members of SCKC, we hope that your weekend with us is full of lasting memories and good times, and that you each feel welcomed and appreciated... and above all, we hope to see you again next year!

All the best,
