WELCOME TO OUR DOG SHOWS!
PLEASE, DON'T FORGET TO:

ASK BEFORE TOUCHING OR FEEDING A DOG!

Often people have spent hours grooming their dog. Other dogs are nervous at shows or may not be accustomed to crowds or children. Some dogs grab for treats or they might have finicky stomachs

NEVER LET YOUR CHILD HUG A STRANGE DOG!

Just like most people object to being grabbed and hugged by strangers, so do many dogs!

WATCH WHERE YOU STEP!

We want you to make sure that you don't step on any feet, noses or tails of our friends. Also, not all dog handlers or owners are considerate enough to clean up after their dogs.

KEEP ALL FAMILY MEMBERS ON THE OUTSIDE OF RING BARRIERS!

Each dog and handler has only moments in the ring for the judge to evaluate him and any distractions (food or objects thrown into the ring, body parts handing over or under the ring barriers, and/or loud disturbances) can throw their performance off.

ALWAYS ASK FIRST IF IT IS A GOOD TIME TO TALK!

You might be catching someone as they are nervously waiting to go in the ring, or hurriedly grooming for an upcoming ring time, or may be just closely watching dogs that are interested in. If we are engrossed in something, we will be happy to let you know when and where is a better time to talk.

CHILDREN ARE WELCOME

The welfare of children is assumed to be the responsibility of the spectator and exhibitor. It is distinctly understood that spectator and exhibitors will exercise control and restraint over their children while on the show premises.

Animal Whispering

Connecting & Communicating with Love & Compassion

Dr. Nancy Bruington, d.c.

Animals have a strong desire to communicate with us. They use their tails, eyes, legs, paws or hooves and sounds, but words are missing. This is where Nancy can help - by translating between species. By hearing accurate information from them, we can better provide what they need to improve their lives.

Dr. Bruington has a gift of communicating with animals. She connects with them and as they speak to her, she identifies issues the animal may be facing. Sometimes the animal may be troubled or worried, hurt or sick, angry or confused. They may be empathizing with their owner and taking on their human's pain. A session is suggested when there is a behavior, health issue or relationship need and you would like to have input from your animal.

- Performance dog or horse concerns
- Pet health and allergy matters
- Behavior, pack problems or issues
- End of life issues or questions

Dr. Bruington's services can help to resolve problems for the animal, the people, and the entire critter family.

Happy pets mean happy owners!

Whether it is annoying habits, worrisome health, or changing situations that are making you and your pet unhappy, solutions can be found.

Through inter-species communication, Nancy works directly with your pet to address issues that aren't so apparent, but nevertheless are important to your pet's happiness.

"Dr. Bruington is the most accurate sensitive intuitive communicator I have known in my 50 years in the field. I have brought all five of my dogs to her for different consultations over the years. I cannot recommend her more highly than to say she is truly a professional with a very special gift."

- Dr. Betty R., Washington

AKC Code of Sportsmanship

PREFACE: The sport of purebred dog competitive events dates prior to 1884, the year of AKC's birth. Shared values of those involved in the sport include principles of sportsmanship. They are practiced in all sectors of our sport: conformation, performance and companion. Many believe that these principles of sportsmanship are the prime reason why our sport has thrived for over one hundred years. With the belief that it is useful to periodically articulate the fundamentals of our sport, this code is presented.

- Sportsmen respect the history, traditions and integrity of the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen commit themselves to values of fair play, honesty, courtesy, and vigorous competition, as well as winning and losing with grace.
- Sportsmen refuse to compromise their commitment and obligation to the sport of purebred dogs by injecting personal advantage or consideration into their decisions or behavior.
- The sportsman judge judges only on the merits of the dogs and considers no other factors.
- The sportsman judge or exhibitor accepts constructive criticism.
- The sportsman exhibitor declines to enter or exhibit under a judge where it might reasonably appear that the judge's placements could be based on something other than the merits of the dogs.
- The sportsman exhibitor refuses to compromise the impartiality of a judge.
- The sportsman respects the AKC bylaws, rules, regulations and policies governing the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen find that vigorous competition and civility are not inconsistent and are able to appreciate the merit of their competition and the effort of competitors.
- Sportsmen welcome, encourage and support newcomers to the sport.
- Sportsmen will deal fairly with all those who trade with them.
- Sportsmen are willing to share honest and open appraisals of both the strengths and weaknesses of their breeding stock.
- Sportsmen spurn any opportunity to take personal advantage of positions offered or bestowed upon them.
- Sportsmen always consider as paramount the welfare of their dog.
- Sportsmen refuse to embarrass the sport, the American Kennel Club, or themselves while taking part in the sport.
