SHOW IS DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF

Jana Renee Thomas

Jana Thomas passed into the care of God on June 1, 2021. She was the founder and CEO of Paws for Smiles, Inc., a not-for-profit organization created in 2005 and dedicated to bringing smiles to nursing homes, hospices, hospitals, and schools in South Florida through registered pet therapy dogs.

Her organization assists in the pet therapy registration process and connects “pet therapy teams” with locations where they are needed. She was instrumental in starting Service Dogs 4 Servicemen and other volunteer organizations that brought dogs and people together.

Jana credited her dear friend and pet therapy mentor, Nancy Grubbs, as the person who motivated her passion for therapy dogs. Nancy organized a group of obedience club members to do a demonstration at a nursing home in 1982. As Jana tells it, “That one visit expanded to weekly visits and my 35-year career testing and creating therapy dog teams throughout Florida.”

Jana belonged to the Alliance of Therapy Dogs and was the only Therapy Dog Tester/Observer in South Florida. She is a certified tester for the national organization, Therapy Dogs, Inc.

She was an active member of the Hollywood Dog Obedience Club of Hollywood, Inc. where, over the years, she served on the board of directors, a teacher of basic obedience and pet therapy classes. She was the primary teacher for DOCOH’s puppy classes and considered one of the best puppy teachers in South Florida. She began using positive reinforcement techniques with puppies long before it became a popular training method.

Jana loved Shelties and was a both an active and lifetime member of the Shetland Sheepdog Club of Southeast Florida. Her first Australian Shepherd, Mandy, was not only competition trained, but her first service dog.

In addition to being an excellent teacher of basic obedience classes, Jana competed in Obedience and Agility trials with her dogs, winning CD and CDX titles.
