REMEMBERING

Harriet Pritchard

Harriet Pritchard

Monona, Wisconsin | January 20, 1930 – July 2, 2025

Harriet married William "Bill" Pritchard on June 20, 1967 and had one daughter, Stefani. Harriet loved to garden, play euchre with her card club and watch professional golf, tennis, and the Wisconsin Badgers.

Harriet's love for dogs started with Miniature Poodles which soon lead her to professional grooming, which then led her to breeding and showing Bichon Frises. Her passion for the breed was the catalyst for her many enduring friendships throughout the "dog world" including many friends at the Badger Kennel Club. We'll always remember Harriet for saying and meaning, "You know I tell it like it is," and she did.

Harriet was a lifetime member of the Badger Kennel Club and the Bichon Frise Club of America. Harriet is seriously missed by both clubs. She is survived by her daughter, Stefani and her many, many friends.

The most attractive sound in the world is a puppy's bark of welcome for it's master. If I do not find dogs in paradise it will not be a paradise for me, and I shall promptly apply for a transfer to another place.
