In Memory of Don & Boots Rogers

Don and Boots Rogers started showing black Miniature Poodles in 1966. As they became more involved in the sport, Don became interested in not only showing but also judging dogs as well. He began judging in the early 70's, and became a popular multi-group judge, judging the Terrier, Toy, Non-Sporting and Herding groups. Don also traveled overseas numerous times to judge throughout the years. Don and Boots retired from showing dogs in 1982, after finishing their first Whippet, so Don could focus solely on judging.

Don and Boots were lifetime members of both the Greater Hattiesburg Kennel Club and Meri-Miss Kennel Club. Don was President for both clubs and Boots was Show Chairman for both clubs. They are also the founding members of the Greater Hattiesburg Kennel Club.

In May of 1985, after holding shows at various locations in previous years, Don decided to hold the shows at Paul B. Johnson State Park. This was the birth of the Crawfish Cluster, getting its name from the ever popular crawfish boils that were held each year as a fun gathering for exhibitors. In the early days at the park, lots of folks would come the week prior to the shows and stay on site, having cookouts and parties every night until the shows began. During the afternoon of the crawfish boil, people would play volleyball, football, horseshoes and many other fun outdoor games. Many also enjoyed cool beverages at the Red Dog Saloon while eating crawfish out of wooden crates.

Don and Boots were beloved figures in the sport and are greatly missed, but their legacy will live on.

www.closertoheavenllc.com

Thermal drone pet recovery is a modern way to help locate lost pets quickly and safely. A trained drone pilot uses a drone equipped with a thermal camera that can detect body heat from the air. This service is meant to support and guide pet owners during a stressful situation and improve the chances of a successful reunion.

KENNEL CLUB

AKC® Code of Sportsmanship and Civility

Preface: The tradition of competitive purebred dog events predates 1884—the year the American Kennel Club (AKC®) was founded. Those involved in these sports share core values, including a strong commitment to sportsmanship and a welcoming, respectful culture that embraces the diverse community united by a love of dogs.

These values are evident across all aspects of the sport: conformation, performance, companion, and family dog activities. Many believe that the enduring principles of sportsmanship and civility are key reasons the sport has thrived for over 140 years.

Recognizing that periodically reaffirming our shared values strengthens our community, the revised code will be shared widely to highlight the foundational values and principles that define the sport.

- Sportspeople always place the welfare of their dog above all else.
- Sportspeople prioritize the long-term health and preservation of their breed, making decisions that reflect a deep commitment to responsible breeding and ownership.
- Sportspeople respect the history, traditions and integrity of the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportspeople conduct themselves in a manner that reflects positively on the sport, the American Kennel Club, and themselves.
- Sportspeople appreciate, encourage and support all who associate with and participate in the sports by fostering an environment where respect, equity, inclusion, and courtesy are foundational.
- Sportspeople understand, uphold and abide by all AKC bylaws, rules, regulations and policies.
- Sportspeople contribute to a positive atmosphere at events by avoiding negative gossip, disparagement, or unsportsmanlike behavior.
- Sportspeople extend their values of civility, fairness, and respect to all digital and social media platforms.
- Sportspeople actively support the education and mentorship of newcomers, helping them learn the rules, values, and traditions of the sport in a respectful way.
- Sportspeople recognize that they are role models in the sport, and strive to lead by example through humility, kindness, and ethical conduct.
- Sportspeople treat fellow exhibitors, judges, officials, volunteers, spectators, and AKC staff with dignity and respect, regardless of experience, background, or differences in opinion.
- Sportspeople are committed to fair play, honesty, courtesy, and competition, approaching both winning and losing with grace.
- Sportspeople understand that strong competition and civility can—and should—coexist. They appreciate the quality of their competitors, and the effort put forth by others.
- Sportspeople uphold their responsibilities to the sport of purebred dogs and refuse to let personal gain or self-interest influence their decisions or behavior.
- The sportsperson judges only on the merits of the dogs and considers no other factors.
- The sportsperson judge or exhibitor accepts constructive criticism.
- The sportsperson exhibitor declines to enter or exhibit under a judge where it might reasonably appear that the judge's placements could be based on something other than the merits of the dogs.
- The sportsperson exhibitor refuses to compromise the impartiality of a judge.
- Sportspeople are willing to share honest and open appraisals of both the strengths and weaknesses of their breeding stock.
- Sportspeople decline to exploit any positions of authority or recognition for personal advantage.
- Sportspeople appreciate those that have gone before them and realize they are responsible for maintaining and enhancing the sport for future generations.
