Introducing our Judges

We have tried to select judges who you as exhibitors would like to show under. To familiarize you with these judges in case you do not know them we are including a brief biographical sketch for each.

Our Saturday Sweepstakes Judge is Marti Rhyne – Anchorage, Alaska

We got our first Siberian Husky in 1986. She was not a show dog. We got to know some of the local show people though and started showing in 1989. We got our first real show dog from Richlynn Siberians, Richard and Lynn Szymurski from New Orleans, in 1991.

We went to our first National in 1990, Orlando. What fun! And a tradition was begun. I've been to most Nationals since then.

Over the years we've bred about 5 litters with 7 home grown champions. Almost every litter goes back to our Ramey, Ch. Cadohi's Red October.

We moved to Alaska from Texas in 2009 to start mushing. We are very much a recreational team, no Iditarod race in our future, but we have loads of fun and have learned even more about our breed. And occasionally we actually mush on parts of the Iditarod trail.

Our Judge for the Saturday show is Jessica Breinholt – Willow Alaska

I began in Siberians at the age of 10, when I talked my parents into letting me bring a puppy home from a racing Siberian kennel in our mountain neighborhood. Within a few years I was not only racing a team, but competing in jr. showmanship and obedience with my first AKC-registered Siberian, Tigger (Kaylenberg's Frosty Tiger CD, CGC). Later came my first conformation champion (Am/Can Ch. Tamerlane's Carpe Diem CD, CGC), followed by multiple homebred and owner-handled champions. After a hiatus from sled dog racing to attend college and establish my career as a technical writer, I returned to competition and have completed SHCA Sled Dog degrees on almost half my current kennel.

I have spent most of my life dedicated to this breed both as a musher and a breeder-owner-handler, and I believe we who love and strive to preserve the Siberian Husky are fortunate to have a dog that can still capably perform its original function. As a judge, I am thrilled by the opportunity to find and reward the many sound, beautiful animals our breeders have to offer. Thank you for giving me the opportunity!

Our judge for the Sunday show is Sherry Webster – Bartlett TN

The first Samoyed came to our home in 1970. We have enjoyed the company of Samoyeds since then. Other than Samoyeds, we have owned and shown Pembroke Welsh Corgis. My show career started in 1979 as Peppermint Samoyeds. Over the years we have enjoyed showing our dogs with our two daughters, Amy and Holly (both former Junior Handlers), and now with our two grandchildren, Brandon and Kaylee. Amy recently showed our group winning special, CH GCHB Frostyacres Peppermint Rokete Rexann (Tapit).

I became an AKC approved judge in 1997 and am currently approved to judge the Working Group, Herding Group and Sporting breeds. It has been an honor to judge specialties and internationally also. As founding member of the Greater Shelby Kennel Club in the Memphis area, I am currently serving as a board member and a member of the judge selection committee. I have been a member of the Samoyed Club of America since 1980 and have served on various committees including Board Member and Treasurer.

So proud to have co-founded the Showcase of Dogs, a large multi-canine event with proceeds benefiting St. Jude Children's research hospital for children with cancer.

We hope you are pleased with our judges and will come and support our independent specialty shows.
