The Show Committee recommends that all attendees bring a mask, just in case

Welcome to Southern Colorado Kennel Club's 67th annual dog show event! We feel privileged to be amongst the company of dog show friends from around the country and around the world.

If 2023 marks your first year at our show, we want to extend a special heartfelt appreciation to you for choosing to spend your weekend with us here in Colorado and hope this will be just one of many visits to come.

I am proud to say that at the Southern Colorado Kennel Club our motto is, "we have a good thing go 'n on"! Good, because our club is made up of a group of very special and extraordinary people; diverse in so many ways, but with one common thread ... the passion we each share for our dogs and for our community. The people of SCKC are an unequalled group of hardworking, loyal, and dedicated volunteers that advocate for dogs and work hard to provide the city of Pueblo as well as the surrounding communities with an affordable place to train, to learn, and to gather. Each year, our dog show is the culmination of a full year of thousands of volunteer hours spent working and planning to bring you three great days of fun and we hope you can take advantage of as much as possible while you are here.

On behalf of all the members of SCKC, we hope that your weekend with us is full of lasting memories and good times, and that you each feel welcomed and appreciated... and above all, we hope to see you again next year!

All the best,

Once the eligibility time frame for that year has passed all participants return to the Open Class to complete for the following year.

No entry may be changed or cancelled unless notice of the change or cancellation is received in writing by the Superintendent or Show Secretary named in the premium list to receive entries, prior to the closing date and hour for entries, except that a correction may be made from one age division to another, as well as, move from Master to Open or Open to Novice if a win has been disallowed or the Junior miscalculated number of placements, provided this transfer is made by the Superintendent or Show Secretary prior to the judging of the class at the show.

NOTICE: Junior Handlers must include their AKC JUNIOR HANDLER NUMBER on each entry.

You may obtain your junior identification number by calling the AKC, Judges Education Department (919) 233-9767.

This policy includes Group, BIS, Junior Showmanship, the 4-6 Month Beginner Puppy Competition, the AKC National Owner-Handled Series (NOHS), and all other special attractions that offer Group and BIS competitions.

Ramps can be used in emergency situations to judge any breed. In emergency situations where use of a ramp is not indicated in the premium list, an exhibitor has the option of withdrawing their entry and receiving a refund.
